

Bart's Bards Outreach

Bart's Bards Outreach performs at local senior and nursing homes throughout the spring, fall and winter months and consists of mainly current or former parishioners with some Bards from the surrounding area and parishes. Not all Outreach members appear in every show. If you would like to join this rewarding ministry contact Marge Sowell at 522-1902 or any of the members pictured. The members of our Outreach group that appeared at this performance are pictured here."

(l to r) Dan Nieman, Mark Rothan, Margery Sowell, Bill Fessler, Regina Rothan, Paula Fogt, Teresa Riestenberg, Maddy Fessler, Bill Williams, Luigina Yerino, Elise Fessler, Tom Koch and Helen Rothan.

Next Show:

Currently negotiating with Atria Northgate Park. We performed here a couple of years ago and were warmly received.

Past Shows:

February 2009 – Sunrise Assisted Living

On Saturday, Feb. 7, our Bart's Bards Outreach group enchanted an enthusiastic audience at Sunrise Assisted Living in Finneytown with music, comedy and friendship. From the first rousing strains of "Getting to Know You" by the ensemble to the final community sing of "It's a Grand Old Flag" the residents joined in the spirit of the moment infecting all with a feeling of unbridled enthusiasm. As always it became hard to determine who benefited more - the audience or the performers. What a joy! The Bards presented love songs, comedy duets, witty skits and monologues, a fantastic tribute to the "Rat Pack" of old, and walked everyone down memory lane with a variety of sing-a-long songs designed to appeal. One of the residents identified himself as a founding member of St. Barts, and they all thanked us profusely for our time and talents.